John Waters named President of ConMet

Amsted Industries announces that John Waters has been named President of its subsidiary company, Consolidated Metco (ConMet), succeeding Mike Swiderski who has retired.

Mr. Waters has held a number of managerial roles spanning virtually every aspect of the business during his 27 years at ConMet. In addition to serving as Chief Financial Officer, he has held the role of Vice President and General Manager of Metals, and most recently Senior Global Vice President of Sales and Operations.

About ConMet

ConMet is a leading global manufacturer of wheel hubs, structural plastic, and aluminum casting components for the commercial vehicle industry. Since 1964, ConMet has been providing customers worldwide with lightweight, durable, reliable parts that enhance vehicle performance, improve fuel efficiency and increase payload capacity for the heavy-duty truck and trailer industry. They operate 13 manufacturing facilities in the U.S., China, and Mexico.
